NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Mrs. A. R. Crowell is at Littleton, N. H.

Miss Sadie Van Tassel is among the guests at Ocean Grove.

Mrs. C. W. Powers is spending a month at Trenton Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. F. W. Bennett is at Danbury, Conn., visiting relatives.

Mrs. Albert Field is quite sick at her residence on Belleville Avenue.

Charles D. Kopp left Bloomfield on Wednesday for a trip to Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Nicholas Arnold of New York is visiting her sister, Mrs. Peter Fornoff.

Mrs. Dr. Thomas, mother of Veeder G. Thomas, is now very sick at her son's residence.

William Rawson of Passaic has recently moved into Mr. Osborn's house on Canal street.

Horton Williams, Robert Woodbridge and Hadley P. Cadmus are at Ocean Grove.

Michael Owen, Jr., narrowly escaped being struck by a train at Watsessing, on Tuesday night.

William S. Dodd left on Thursday morning for Point Pleasant, where he will spend his vacation.

Hon. Amzi Dodd and wife and Mrs.
Leonard Richards are at Grand Hotel, Summit Mountain, N. Y.

The German Presbyterian people of Bloomfield went on an excursion to Long Island, on Wednesday.

W. B. Corby and family went to Greenport, L. I., last week. Mr. Corby was well pleased with the trip.

The Woodstocks of Bloomfield were defeated by the Alpines of Watsessing on Saturday by a score of ten to eleven.

The picnic of the German Presbyterian Mission School of Montclair will be held next Saturday in Fritz Woods, Glen Ridge.

A handsome black walnut tree in front of Walter S. Freeman's house on Broad street was badly injured by lightning last week.

The game of ball played on Saturday at Jersey City between the Watsessings and Jersey Blue club resulted in a score of ten to one in favor of the Jersey City Club.

Joseph M. Spaulding of this place and Miss Florence M. Holt, daughter of Mrs. M. Holt, will be married on next Tuesday evening, in St. Barnabas Church, corner of Bushwick Avenue and Kossuth Place, in Brooklyn.

The team attached to Wm. Baldwin's water cart became frightened on Monday while standing on Spruce street and ran to the corner of Liberty street and Oakland avenue, where they were stopped by coming in contact with a fence.

Misses Pauline Ensslin and Minnie Bersticher returned from Bridgeport, Conn., where they have been spending the past few weeks. Miss Clarissa Coey-man of Bridgeport returned with them and will visit Miss Ensslin for a short time.

The funeral of Cornelius Van Winkle, who died on Sunday, was largely attended from his late residence on Montgomery street, on Tuesday afternoon.
Rev. Albert Mann, Jr., conducted the services. The deceased was in his forty-third year.

Miss Emily Kent, daughter of Walter Kent, was united in marriage to Frank Shepenson, on Tuesday evening at nine o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents on Glenwood Avenue. Rev. Dr.
Stubbart performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Miss Mary Sable of this place was painfully injured on Friday afternoon of last week while at work in Bickler & Bro's paper box factory in Greene St., N. Y., by being struck on her head by a large piece of wall which fell from the ceiling. She remained unconscious for a short time, but was able to be brought home in the evening.

—Rev. Frederick Laure, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in town during the week.

—Miss Augusta L. Brower, the Misses Sarah F. and Jennie Davis are at Lake George.

—Prof. Charles M. Davis is at Richfield Springs, attending the School of Christian Philosophy.

—Work has begun on the new county bridge on Clark St., over Toney's brook; this is a long desired improvement.

—Mr. Gottfried Voss has entirely recovered from his fall at the German Sunday School picnic.

—Mr. George W. Cook, with his children and Louise White, are spending a couple of weeks at Sparta, N. Y.

—Rev. Otto Zesch of Lawrence, Mass., son-in-law of Mr. Keyler, will be in town during the coming week. Mr. Zesch has accepted a call from a church in Cincinnati.

—Mrs. E. Wilde, together with her daughter and son-in-law, Rev. G. W.
Smith, of Westfield, have gone to Niagara Falls. It is also their purpose to attend a Camp Meeting on the Canada side.

—Burglars again! Thursday night two houses on Spruce street, occupied by Mr.
Holmes and Mr. Poe, were entered by burglars, but with very poor success; at Mr. Holmes' they were heard and scared off, and at Mr. Poe's they met with a cordial reception, and it is said that one of them went away with a bullet under his skin.

—Mr. J. W. Lees of Leesburg, Florida, a native of Bloomfield, is now spending a vacation North. His main object in coming is to have an operation performed on his right eye, and he is now in New York under treatment, which we understand is likely to prove successful. He makes his home in Bloomfield with Mr. E. Wilde.

—Much inquiry about the trains being late has been made of late but the information obtained has been meagre. We are authoritatively informed that the daily detention is caused by new arrangements which are in practice at Montclair during the construction of the new depot and changing of the track. The annoyance will undoubtedly disappear on the completion of the building.

—The funeral services of the late Samuel Carl, of this place, who died at Prairie du Sac, Wis., Aug. 14th, were held at the Park M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Rev. Mr. Mann, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. D. R. Lowrie. The remarks of both clergymen were in every respect very fitting and true. In their eulogy they referred to his business, church, and home life, in each of which he had shown integrity, devotion and love.

The floral emblems were very rich and beautiful. A large pillow of white flowers, in the centre of which were three links in dark flowers, came from the members of the Odd Fellows Lodge, of which the deceased has been a member for many years. The pulpit was neatly draped, in the front of which were seven white links, one of which was detached, showing that the chain had been broken. This design came from the Trustees of the Church, and the very beautiful offering "Rest," which was placed directly under the broken chain, was a gift from members of the church. The pall bearers were Messrs. Horace Dodd, Mark W. Ball, W. A. Francis, T. W. Langstroth, Joseph Carter, John Sherman, N. H. Dodd and Abel Baker.

Township Committee.

The Township committee met on Wednesday evening. Thomas Oakes presided in the absence of Chairman Baldwin. A communication was received from the water company stating that the defective hydrants had been put in repair and they would all be opened frequently, also that the mains would be flushed when the condition of the water required it. William R. Weeks, State counsel for the United Fire Association, recommended that the Chief Engineer be sent to the Fire Engineers' Convention which meets at Long Branch in September. The matter was referred to the Fire Committee.

Mr. Dailey reported that Mr. Harvey had agreed to grade his sidewalk on Broad street for $125. The Road Committee were authorized to ask for bids for laying from 5,000 to 2,500 feet of stone walk on Broad street, sixteen feet wide and six inches thick. James C. Beach and E. A. Smith were appointed Commissioners of Appeals. No other business being on hand the committee adjourned.

Mr. E. S. Gernard, of Irvington, will begin the canvassing of this vicinity next week for nursery stock. He represents the firm of W. & T. Smith, of the "Geneva Nurseries," the oldest and largest in the country. This firm has been in the business forty years, and have earned their well established reputation for honesty and reliability. Those who purchase of this firm may feel assured of stock in first class condition and true to name. They guarantee this on the face of every order.

Bloomfield-by-the-Sea.

DEAR CITIZEN:

The above-named place, known on the map as Point Pleasant, was discovered, we understand, several years ago by the Rev. Dr. Knox of Bloomfield. He foreseeing its destiny as a summer resort, or for some other reason unknown to the writer, invested in a large strip of land running from above the present railroad station to the ocean, nearly half a mile away. This strip of land is now said to be worth about eight times its original cost. In the comfortable old homestead on this property Dr. Knox and his family have for several years spent their summers, and it is mainly through him that Point Pleasant has become a popular resort for Bloomfield people. For the information of our friends who are not acquainted with the place, we will say that it is located on the south side of the Manasquan river, twenty or twenty-five miles below Long Branch. It is on the Long Branch Railroad, and during the summer season there are about thirty trains each way daily. The town is divided into two settlements, one west of the railroad, on the river, and the other on the ocean. This latter is called Land's End, and though it has the advantages of good roads and sidewalks, street lamps and an excellent water supply, it is not nearly so popular with Bloomfield people as the river neighborhood.

At various places along the river front may be found the following Bloomfield-ers: Messrs. Nathan Russell and E. W.
Sutton and families, who together occupy their own double cottage; Mr. T. M.
Nevius and family; Mr. J. H. Hardcastle, Mrs. and Miss Hardcastle; Miss Martha Gallagher and Miss Kate Gallagher; Mrs.
Norris and Miss May Norris; Miss Ella Clark and Mr. Frank G. Tower and family. Masters Malcolm and Harry Nash and Nelson Chittler are camping out on the river bank, and make daily excusions in a very handsome canoe built by Malcolm Nash. In a cottage on the river, owned by Mr. J. P. Jones, are Mr. and Mrs. George Russ, formerly of Bloomfield. At the Beach Cottage on the ocean are Mr. and Mrs. John Newton and family and Miss Baird.

Among those who have been here but have returned to their homes are Mr.
Smith Chittler and family; Mr. W. T.
Howe and family; Mr. Louis Bliss and family and Mrs. Smith; at Brielle, across the river from this place, we saw a few days ago, the Rev. Dr. Farrington, Mr.
Geo. D. Puffer and Mr. Dunlop. From this array of familiar names you will admit that we are not far out of the way in designating the place "Bloomfield-by-the-Sea."

Amusements are plentiful and we find that time passes only too rapidly. The bathing is excellent, both in the ocean and the river; fishing is good at the "inlet" and crabs may be caught in any quantity all along the river. For boating and sailing the Manasquan, above the railroad bridge, can hardly be excelled.
There is plenty of room, and the water, being shallow, is perfectly safe; in fact a Bloomfield lady recently while bathing waded across the river without difficulty.
Fishing excursions to Barnegat Bay, only a few miles away, are indulged in with much pleasure, but with very little profit. At Bay Head, a mile or so south of us, is located one of the finest life saving stations on the Atlantic coast, and a tramp down the shore (at low tide) to inspect it will be amply repaid. There are some very pleasant drives, through "the pines" to Lakewood, nine miles west of here, and over the river to Man-asquan and Sea Girt, where is located the Summer Camp of the N. J. State Militia. A few days ago the writer had the pleasure of a call from Mr. and Mrs.
H. M. Barrett, who drove down from Ocean Beach. The trip occupied about three hours.

Now, my dear CITIZEN, I must close, or I fear you will pronounce me monotonous.
I cannot, however, refrain from mentioning an exceedingly pleasant little informal meeting which was held on the piazza of Messrs. Russell and Sutton's house last Sunday evening. There were present, all told, twenty-four Bloomfield people, and among them were five out of seven of the trustees of Westminster Church, and two deacons. It is hardly necessary to say that the evening was spent in singing hymns and in quiet and profitable conversation; it will long be remembered by those who were present.

I had almost forgotten to mention that the handsomest and most convenient cottage on the river was planned by our fellow townsman, Mr. Fred. White. It is owned by Mr. T. C. Curtis, of the Curtis House and is occupied by the family of Dr. Lee, a brother-in-law of Mr. Charles Trumbull White.

POINT PLEASANT, AUG. 20TH.

—Mr. Louis Bliss is about starting on a three months' trip through the Western States; he will go as far as San Francisco.

Obituary.

SAMUEL CARL, who went west early in July for the benefit of his health, died August 14th, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Archibald Moore, at Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, of cancerous enlargement of the liver.

In the 62d year of his age at the time of his death, Mr. Carl was one of the oldest business men in Bloomfield, having established the clothing business at his late stand in 1846. During his life he filled various positions of trust. He served a term as School Trustee, was a member of the board when the Centre schoolhouse was built. He was elected member of Town Committee and acted as Treasurer for two years, and at the time of his death was a director of the Bloomfield Savings Institution. He was a member of Odd Fellows and Masonic Lodges. For twenty-three years he had been a member of the M. E. Church of Bloomfield, and was the oldest Trustee, having acted in that capacity ever since the church was erected, and for more than twenty years was Treasurer of the society. He was for many years one of the Stewards of the church, and also acted as treasurer of that board. He was always very deeply interested in the prosperity of the church, and worked earnestly and faithfully for its advancement. In his religious life he was quiet and thoughtful, ever enjoying the presence and love of his Redeemer. He was a man of strict integrity and industry, a kind and loving husband and father. He leaves a wife and three grown children to mourn his loss.

The Sabbath Question.

To The Citizen:
It is not only proper but necessary that the important question of "How to pass Sunday time?" should be thoroughly discussed at this juncture if American citizens are to remain a self-governing and law-abiding people.

Observance of the Christian Sabbath, called Sunday, has been a fundamental principle of New Jersey Legislation since the foundation of the State. Laws for Sunday observance were made not only by professors of religion, but by non-professors also, who recognized the fact that Sabbath keeping is a benefit to the people physically and morally.

Let the politicians beware of bartering away our birthright to secure the votes of late comers, who hang around our cities and towns, keeping rum and beershops, selling rum on Sunday, instead of "going west" when they arrive, and honestly working at farming, or some other useful employment. Herein lies the marrow of this question. "Verbum sapientie."

KEEP COOL.

WHITE MOUNTAIN

Hammock Chair.

Self-adjusting to any position. Strong, durable and light. The White Mountain Hammock Chair differs from all other stationary or reclining chairs in that it is better, stronger and sturdier, is adapted to the house, lawn, porch or camp, and is full of quiet comfort and rest.
Is far superior to the hammock in every way, and can be put up so as to be always in the shade. By its peculiar construction it is balanced in all positions, requiring no fastenings to keep it in place. The foot-rest can be quickly and easily adjusted to suit the tallest or shortest persons. The seat is made of strong canvas, fitting perfectly the entire length, without drawing the clothing tightly around the body, thus making it much cooler than a hammock.

Price Complete, with Stand, only $3.75.

THE GREATEST

OF THEM ALL.

The picture of GENERAL GRANT, which we presented to our customers Saturday was (as we expected) the greatest of all our past successes. Many dealers in the city offered us as high as 25c each for it, but all to no purpose, as we procured them solely for our patrons. As the rush for them has not abated, we have ordered our artists to strike off 25,000 more, which we feel will meet the great demand. In order that all may be accommodated, we shall continue the distribution one week longer. We hope that none will fail to secure a copy.

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS!

Everybody speaks in praise of our latest departure in Mixed Teas at 20c per pound.
Evidently we have struck a mixture which goes to the right spot.

COFFEE! COFFEE!

The Coffee which we offered last week at 25 cents per pound gave great satisfaction, many tents having been sold. Parties desirous of obtaining from that stock should apply at once, as it must soon be exhausted.

Elgin Creamery Butter

Only 22c. Per Pound.

They all try to beat us by claiming to sell the Elgin, when in fact they sell a cheap dairy, and when you tell them that you must have the best, they coolly charge you an extra two or three cents per pound. If you earnestly desire the Elgin Creamery at 22c per pound you will find it only at the stores of
